7	Unable to stop the virus from spreading Personal Hygiene	4	3	12	Transmission <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The virus that causes COVID-19 is mainly transmitted through droplets generated when an infected person coughs or sneezes. This virus can be readily isolated from respiratory secretions. There are two routes by which COVID-19 can be spread: directly from close contact with an infected person (within 2 metres) where respiratory secretions can enter the eyes, mouth, nose or airways - this risk increases the longer someone has close contact with an infected person who has symptoms. Secondly, indirectly by touching a surface, object or the hand of an infected person that has been contaminated with respiratory secretions and then touching one's own mouth, nose, or eyes. Handwashing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Handwashing is one of the most important ways of controlling the spread of infections, The recommended method is the use of liquid soap, warm water and paper towels. Always wash hands after using the toilet, before eating or handling food, and after handling animals. Coughing and sneezing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Coughing and sneezing easily spread infections. Persons are encouraged to cover their mouth and nose with a tissue. Wash hands after using or disposing of tissues. Spitting should be discouraged. Personal protective equipment (PPE). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> PPE for cleaners as per MSDS and/or COSHH risk assessments PPE for cleaners when completing a Deep Clean The correct PPE should be used when handling cleaning chemicals. Monitor cleaning contracts and ensure cleaners are appropriately trained with access to PPE Cleaning of blood and body fluid spillages. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> All spillages of blood, faeces, saliva, vomit, nasal and eye discharges should be cleaned up immediately (always wear PPE). When spillages occur, clean using a product that combines both a detergent and a disinfectant. Use as per manufacturer's instructions and ensure it is effective against bacteria and viruses and suitable for use on the affected surface. Never use mops for cleaning up blood and body fluid spillages – use disposable paper towels and discard clinical waste as described below. A spillage kit should be available for blood spills. Clinical waste. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Always segregate domestic and clinical waste, in accordance with local policy.
